Materials required:

- Sample task
- Student’s worksheets 1 and 2
- Student’s worksheet 2 Exercise 1 cut up into strips
- OHT of assessment criteria
- Audio or video recording of Part 2 of the Speaking test (e.g. the PET Speaking test video pack, available from Cambridge ESOL)
- Transcript

Aims:

- to introduce and practise Part 2 of the Speaking test
- to consider what makes a good performance in PET Speaking Part 2
- to identify and practise some useful language for PET Speaking Part 2

Procedure

1. Introduce Part 2 of the Speaking test by eliciting any information about it that your students already know. Establish the basics by asking questions such as:
   - Do you work alone or with your partner in Part 2? (With your partner)
   - Are there any visual materials? (Yes, there are some pictures)
   - Is this a roleplay? (No, but you are given a situation to talk about)

2. Hand out the sample task and the student’s worksheet. Direct students to Exercise 1 on the worksheet and ask them to discuss the questions with a partner by referring to the sample task.

3. Whole class discussion of the features of the task (see key).

4. Elicit or remind students of the assessment criteria using the OHT with the assessment criteria. Point out that interactive communication is important in Part 2 but that candidates are assessed on their own performance, not in relation to their partner.
5. If possible, play the video or recording of Part 2. If you don’t have access to the Speaking test video pack, you could record yourself and two colleagues doing Part 2 as an audio recording, using the transcript provided here. If no recording is possible, hand out the transcript for students to read through. Ask students to consider the questions in Exercise 2 of the student’s worksheet while they watch/listen/read.

4. Class discussion of their answers. Point out that Eva could have extended her comments about bringing her umbrella.

5. Explain that they are now going to practise some of the functional language that might be useful in Part 2 and refer back to the examples used by Eva and Bertha to demonstrate what this is. Give students the cut up strips from Student’s worksheet 2 Exercise 1 with one phrase on each strip and the separate headings. Students match the phrases and headings in pairs.

6. Hand out Student’s worksheet 2 in its complete form. Students self check the matching task.

7. Check if any phrases are unfamiliar and present and drill the pronunciation for these phrases and allow students a few minutes to practise by themselves.

8. Explain that students are going to practise a Part 2 task with their partner, and that during it they should use some of the functional language you’ve just been working on. Refer students to Student’s worksheet 2 Exercise 2 and allocate one situation to each pair. Ensure a similar number of pairs are doing each situation.

8. Ask the pairs to discuss the topic and to come to a decision only after they have talked about all five options.

9. Go around the class, monitoring performance and language.

10. When they have finished the task, find out from each pair what they decided upon and give feedback on language and performance. You could highlight examples of both good language and language which needs improving or correcting and getting the students to do this themselves.

12. Divide the class into groups of three. Refer students back to the sample task. Allocate one student in each group to be the examiner and the other two students to be candidates. Students complete the sample task, with the examiner reading the instructions, timing 3 minutes and listening to the other two students completing the task.

13. Go round the class, monitoring performance and language.

14. Ask each examiner for some feedback about their candidates. Encourage them to comment in a positive way about use of phrases, turn taking and interesting vocabulary and grammar.
15. Put the following true/false statements about Part 2 on the board. Give students a few minutes to consider them before rounding off with a discussion about the answers.

- It's more important to look at the pictures as soon as you get them than to listen to the examiner’s instructions.

  (False, you must listen carefully to what you need to do in the task, so try not to look at the pictures immediately as you will probably get distracted and not hear the instructions properly.)

- If you don’t know the correct vocabulary for one of the pictures, you should just ignore it.

  (False, you should try to paraphrase what it is e.g. a wallet is something that you carry your money and credit cards in.)

- You should try to talk more than your partner

  (False, a candidate who dominates the task and doesn’t give their partner a chance to speak will lose marks. The aim is to work together and take turns.)

- You should come to a decision as quickly as possible.

  (False, the examiners can only give marks on the language they hear in the test. By coming to a decision too early, the candidates are not giving themselves the opportunity to show the examiner what they can do. Candidates should talk about all the options and give their reasons for selecting or rejecting them.)
PET Speaking Part 2 – answer keys

Key to Student’s Worksheet 1 Exercise 1

a) Look at the instructions. What do you have to do?

_Talk with your partner about the things a friend of yours will need when she comes to spend 6 months in England._

b) What kind of language will you need to do the task?

- language for describing the objects in the pictures
- future tense e.g. she will need
- modal verbs e.g. she might need
- superlatives and comparatives e.g. a camera is the most important thing to bring / a camera is more important than a stereo
- language for giving reasons e.g. because
- language for giving and asking for opinions e.g. I think, what do you think?

c) Which of these speaking skills are needed for Part 2?

- Making suggestions Yes
- Responding to suggestions Yes
- Answering personal questions No
- Discussing alternatives Yes
- Making recommendations Yes
- Negotiating agreement with your partner Yes
- Roleplay No
- Talking about your plans for the future No

d) What do you think is more important, the discussion or the decision? Why?

_The discussion. The examiners want to hear your language, not your ideas. They want to hear you talking about the topic and interacting with your partner._

Key to Student’s Worksheet 1 Exercise 2

1. Do they discuss all options? Yes they do

2. Do they both speak equally? Why _/ why not?_ Although Bertha gives longer answers than Eva, they both take turns and Eva starts and sums up the activity.

3. Do they give reasons for their opinions? Yes, _there are lots of examples where they give reasons using ‘because’_
4. Does either candidate do the following?

- Start the activity Eva ‘My friend Alicia is coming from Spain for six month because she need to improve her English, yes?’ This is a nice way to start the activity as it makes it realistic.

- Make a suggestion Both

- Ask the other’s opinion Eva ‘So what do you think he has to bring with her?’

- Show a preference Both

- Agree or disagree Both agree a lot.

- Keep the discussion going Bertha continues Eva’s ideas about the radio.

- Sum up Both make a final comment.
PET Speaking Part 2 – Assessment criteria

- Grammar and Vocabulary
  This includes how accurate and appropriate the candidate’s grammar and vocabulary are as well as the range that is used

- Discourse Management
  This is how coherent, long and relevant a candidate’s answers are

- Pronunciation
  This is how clear a candidate’s English sounds are as well as their stress, rhythm and intonation. An accent is fine as long as the candidate can be understood.

- Interactive Communication
  This is how well a candidate uses their language to communicate with their partner, including such skills as initiating and responding, taking turns and keeping the task going.

- Global Achievement
  This is the interlocutor’s assessment of how effective a candidate is in dealing with the tasks in all four parts of the speaking test
PET Speaking Part 2 – Student’s worksheet 1

Exercise 1

Look at the sample Part 2 and discuss the following questions with a partner:

a) Look at the instructions. What do you have to do?

b) What kind of language will you need to do the task?

c) Which of these speaking skills are needed for Part 2?

- making suggestions
- responding to suggestions
- answering personal questions
- discussing alternatives
- making recommendations
- negotiating agreement
- roleplay
- talking about your plans for the future
- with your partner

d) What do you think is more important, the discussion or the decision? Why?

Exercise 2

While you are watching/ listening to/ reading the sample Part 2, think about these questions.

1. Do they discuss all options?

2. Do they both speak equally? Why / why not? Do they give reasons for their opinions?

3. Does either candidate do the following?

- start the activity
- make a suggestion
- ask the other’s opinion
- show a preference
- agree or disagree
- keep the discussion going
- sum up

PET Speaking Part 2 – Sample task

Speaking Test 1 (Trip to England)

Part 2 (2-3 minutes)

Say to both candidates:

I’m going to describe a situation to you.

A friend of yours is planning to spend 6 months in England to improve her English. Talk together about the things she will need in England and decide which are the most important things to take / bring with her.

Here is a picture with some ideas to help you.

Place Part 2 booklet, open at Task 1, in front of candidates.

Pause

I’ll say that again.

A friend of yours is planning to spend 6 months in England to improve her English. Talk together about the things she will need in England and decide which are the most important things to take / bring with her.

All right? Talk together.

Allow the candidates enough time to complete the task without intervention. Prompt only if necessary.

Thank you. (Can I have the booklet please?)

Retrieve Part 2 booklet.

About 2-3 minutes (including time to assimilate the information)
PET Speaking Part 2 – Transcript

Interlocutor: Thank you. In the next part, you're going to talk to each other. I'm going to describe a situation to you: a friend of yours is planning to spend six months in England to improve her English. Talk together about the things she will need in England and decide which are the most important things to bring with her. Here is a picture with some ideas to help you. (Okay) I'll say that again: a friend of yours is planning to spend six months in England to improve her English. Talk together about the things she will need in England and decide which are the most important things to bring with her. Alright? Talk together.

Both: Okay

Eva: Er…my friend Alicia is coming from Spain for six months because she needs to improve her English, yes?

Bertha: Uh-huh.

Eva: So what do you think that he … he has to bring with her?

Bertha: Hmmm, I think she has to bring a lot of money and maps and the tourist guide because I remember when I came here in London for the first time I spent a lot of money in transport, in buying the maps and it was very useful to have the map because you have to move to all London to find a job, to find a place to sleep, an accommodation. So I think it’s the most important. And also the clothes (pronounced: clo-this) because it’s very cold here. And it’s raining.

Eva: Yes, I forgot my umbrella when I arrived at London.

Bertha: So you should tell her that bring

Eva: Yeah.

Bertha: Yeah. Um, maybe, it's not very much important but it's very useful to have the camera to make pictures about all the places in London, famous places like Big Ben, to have (indistinct) the experience you have here because (Yes) it's crazy…remember the first months you experience new things and you met a lot of people. So maybe Alicia should bring…

Eva: I think the most important thing is bring the radio, the cassette because if you hear the radio every day, you can improve your English quickly.

Bertha: Yeah, you can also use the tape from the school to make a listening exercise and all these things. It's very useful, yeah, you learn a lot if you listen English all the day.

Eva: Yes
Bertha: So I think she should be…
Eva: So, the most important things is bring a lot of money and with money you can do everything!
Bertha: Everything, yeah. But if you can bring this stuff from Spain, it's better for her.
Eva: Uh-huh.
Bertha: Sure.
Interlocutor: Right. Thank you.
Eva: You're welcome.
